Dedication

To the students, faculty, and administration at Central Washington College we dedicate this annual in the hope that we have learned to live together in harmony and peace through association with each other, and that we may provide the leaders of tomorrow for this—a troubled world.

President's Message

Central has emerged from the small college class into the realm of larger institutions. It is now one of the half dozen leading colleges in the State of Washington and is in a good position to render a greater service to the coming generations. Last year, college degrees were conferred upon 354 people. The reclamation and irrigation projects in Central Washington and the lower Yakima Valley areas are attracting people in larger numbers. These and the atomic energy plant at Hanford bid fair to increase the population to such a high degree that our institution will be called upon increasingly for more services. A steady growth in college enrollments shall be experienced for years to come.

The greatest change in Central's campus this year has been in the construction of three new buildings. The Board of Trustees authorized the borrowing of $700,000 so that we could erect these buildings. The funds were secured by the floating of an issue of 20-year bonds. During the next twenty years students will contribute to a building fund to retire these bonds. In the meantime we will have the pleasure of occupying a student union building, a commons building and a men's dormitory that will accommodate 100 students. The Union especially will be enjoyed because it will tend to centralize student offices and activities. It has been needed for a long time. Into it will go the student post office, the bookstore, the Campus Crier, the Hyakem, the student council office, the snack bar, the faculty club, a large lounge and two small game rooms. Heretofore these facilities have been scattered among several of the campus buildings. This building will truly be a student center.

Even though the national mobilization of man power for the purpose of building a strong defense against communistic world wide aggression has had a temporary restraining influence, we face the future with optimism. I am happy to report that the atmosphere on the campus has been relatively calm and cheerful.

I extend to the seniors our very best wishes as they depart to take up new endeavors.

We are grateful to the Editor of the Hyakem and her staff for their careful work in compiling and publishing this yearbook. We shall keep it as a valuable record of a busy college year.

Robert E. McConnell, President.

Faculty

Another college year is drawing to a close, and with it come commencement and the college annual. To this season tinged with the sadness of farewells, our Hyakem brings reassurance that the good times and friendships of your college years will not be forgotten but will live forever in this family album of memories. We are aware that once again our C.W. C.E. collegiate family may soon be scattered far and wide. But today as you open your Hyakem, you will find us all there—faculty and students, seniors and freshmen, working and playing together in pictures and paragraphs.

We, who continue on in the college circles, will miss all of you who will be leaving us. To our graduates go our best wishes for success and happiness. May the years ahead bring us many happy reunions. For those who will be entering the service of our Country, we pray for a safe and speedy return. Our sincere appreciation goes out to the members of the Hyakem staff for giving so generously of their time and energy to create a beautiful record of Central Washington College activities for 1950-1951.

Annette H. Hitchcock
Dean of Women

In this Hyakem, by word and picture, is recorded the year we have all enjoyed at Central. In the days yet to be, faculty and students alike will turn again and again to this book. We will all be able to re-live this year's great and exciting moments just by browsing through the pages. Our old friendships will be pledged anew; our new friendships will be strengthened.

The end of an academic year is always a time of mixed feelings. It is a time to congratulate the graduating seniors, but also a time of reluctant "good bye's." It is a time to look back on work well done, but it is also a time to realize that many willing and able workers will no longer be on campus.

Serving as Dean of Men the past year has been a gratifying experience. As Dean I have become acquainted with scores of students I could not have known otherwise. I prize these acquaintances highly. As I have worked and played with Central's students, my regard for them has deepened. I have renewed confidence in the ability of our students to shoulder responsibility and grow under a challenge.

The administration of 1951 has done much to keep the morale of the student body high during a time of indecision.

From his enrollment to his graduation the student receives aid from one or another of the administrative departments at every turn. Their service is indispensable.

Junior Class

In the fall of 1950, the Junior Class elected officers to preside during the school year. Those elected were Ed Goode, president; Ken Keener, vice-president; Beverly Duncan, secretary-treasurer; and Leigh Nold and Dave Berg, social commissioners.

The Junior Class Jeans Jump was held fall quarter. A fall theme was carried out by boughs of autumn leaves, in the form of trees, placed about the gym.

The Junior Class took an active part in the Homecoming celebrations. Their float took first prize.

The main event of the year was the annual Junior Class Barn Dance held February 2. At this time prizes were awarded to the winners of the beard growing contest.

Many Junior class members were active in the preparation for Sweezy Day, and the Junior class sponsored the annual junior-senior picnic.

Sophomore Class

The sophomores got off to a good start this year with Walt Searle leading the group. They began their activities at Homecoming with a float, skit, and sign entries. They received deserved recognition when they won second prize for their skit.

Sophomore class officers for the year were Walt Searle, president; Joel Rindal, vice-president; Marian Adams, secretary; Barbara Organ, treasurer; and Frances Oechsner and Don Ridge, co-social chairmen.

When the social chairmen heard of the date for Cupid's Informal, an annual event sponsored by the sophomore class, they called on their committees and presented one of the biggest events of the school year. A dreamy, romantic atmosphere was created with the color scheme of light pink and deep magenta and the vocals and instrumentals by the Music Makers.

Mr. Eldon Jacobson was "drafted" as class advisor. Even though this was his first year as a member of Central's faculty, he eagerly accepted his advisership and helped out a great deal in the planning of activities for the year.

With the profits of the year, one last fling was flung at Vantage during spring quarter. This was sponsored primarily for the boys who were going into the service and for those not coming back the next fall quarter.

Freshman Class

The freshman class held its first meeting during October in the college auditorium and elected officers for the following quarters of school. Officers of the year were Bud Kuhlman, president; Roy Anderson, vice-president; Joanne Evans, secretary-treasurer; and Betty Washburn and Frank Prather, social commissioners.

Freshmen were easily sighted the first quarter, for they wore the traditional "frosh beanie" until Homecoming, when the winning of the greased pig fight relieved them of this duty.

Completely organized, the freshmen, under the leadership of their officers, sponsored a dance featuring a Candyland world. Dances and skits were some of the social events sponsored by the freshman class.

Homecoming was the next big project. Dozens of committees were chosen for various duties that had to be performed. Every freshman pitched in and helped in some way for that big weekend. A float, which symbolized the strength of the freshmen, was erected for the Homecoming Parade. The bonfire was built to a great height by the mighty freshman boys, and for the first time in years the frosh lit their own bonfire.

With this background of determination, strength, and ability, the freshmen can expect to be one of the greatest classes Central has ever enrolled.

Homecoming

Queen Muff Gilchrist

Hail Her Majesty Queen Muff Gilchrist!

One of the highlights of Homecoming is the coronation of the Homecoming Queen. This year the following were chosen as candidates by the I.K.'s: Mike Adams, Wanda Baldwin, Charlotte Berg, Joan Bowen, Glenna Fitz, Muff Gilchrist, Joan Pennington, and Verna Mae Shriner. At the annual Kick-Off Broadcast, Queen Muff Gilchrist and her two Princesses, Charlotte Berg and Glenna Fitz, were escorted by the I.K.'s and presented to the student body.

Princesses Glenna Fitz, Charlotte Berg

Queen Muff with her sparkling blue eyes and blond hair hails from Bremerton, Washington. She is a sophomore, majoring in science and her desire is to become a laboratory technician. Queen Muff is an active member in Pep and Dance clubs.

Princess Charlotte Berg is from Rice Lake, Wisconsin. Charlotte is a senior and plans to teach after graduation. She has three minors. Charlotte has been active in many activities during her college years and was secretary of the senior class.

Princess Glenna Fitz is from Montesano, Washington. Glenna is a junior and is majoring in English. She is planning to teach in the primary grades.

Queen Muff and her court attended many events and activities. Witnessing stunt night, leading the parade, reigning over the game and dance, were a few of the many pleasant duties. The royal court was presented and honored at the Homecoming game by the band forming a crown and scepter, followed by a bow and arrow.

The Homecoming of 1950 was without a doubt one of the biggest and best in the history of Central. The success of this affair was due to the planning and work of the efficient Homecoming chairmen, Dot Safreed and Pat Donohue and their committees.

The Homecoming officially began Wednesday night with the annual Kick-Off Radio Program. Broadcasting from the auditorium over KXLE co-chairmen Safreed and Donohue gave a forecast of the various events to come.

Coronation of the Homecoming Queen was the main event of the evening. Queen Muff Gilchrist and Princesses Charlotte Berg and Glenna Fitz were escorted to the throne by members of the Intercollegiate Knights.

Stunt Night was held two consecutive nights to accommodate the students and the alumni.

This year the alumni of 1925 were the honored guests. The themes of "Beat Cheney" and magazine covers were very clever and provided an evening of entertainment. Sue Lombard took first prize, the Sophomores, second and Kamola, third.

A holiday was declared Friday afternoon by Dr. McConnell so that some students could work on signs or floats and the others could witness the spectacular Frosh-Soph greased pig fight. The Frosh were declared the winners and for the first time in many years were rewarded by lighting the bonfire.

Saturday proved to be a very busy day. The Homecoming parade was one of the highlights of the day. Many colorful floats, bands, and drill teams were entered.

The Homecoming signs were more numerous than ever this year. Monroe captured first prize, Munson, second and Carmody, third.

As usual the annual pigskin battle with Cheney was held. A banquet for the alumni was held in the evening followed by a semi-formal dance. To draw Homecoming to a close many breakfasts and luncheons were held by the campus organizations to honor old and new members.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is the voice of the students in school administration. Through this association, the departments of athletics, music, drama, and publications are supported. It also provides for the social program, Community Concerts, and the operation of the student post office.

Annual events sponsored by S.G.A. are Orientation, Homecoming, Dad's Day, Christmas decoration competition, Colonial Ball, Variety Show and Sweezy Day.

S.G.A. also appoints permanent committees. These are election, finance, campus club, community concert, publications, and athletic committees. Also, all classes and clubs granted charters by the executive council are represented through the Inter-club Council, presided over by the vice-president.

PRESIDENT AL ADAMS

2nd Row: Viola Hobbach, Barbara George, Flossie Mitchell, Maxine Hart,
Joan Heppell, Margaret Hedstrom

During the past year, the council initiated the idea of progressive firesides at the beginning of each quarter. A Ski Club was organized, resulting in S.G.A.'s purchase of a ski tow for student use. Also, an activity file was set up and used as an index to interest in student activities. Posted weekly in each dormitory was an S.G.A. bulletin summarizing topics discussed in S.G.A. meetings. Plans for the operation and use of the new student union building were made during the year and conferences attended for this purpose.

Officers for this year were Al Adams, president; Don Duncan, vice-president; Norma Symmonds, secretary.

In order most effectively to reach every Central student, eight of the eleven elected members of the executive council represented the eight organized residence groups. The representatives for 1950-51 were Kamola, Florence Mitchell; Kennedy, Margaret Hedstrom; Munson, Harry Drithenbas; Off-Campus Men, Don Norling; Off-Campus Women, Barbara Watson; Sue Lombard, Barbara George; Walnut Street, Les Kramer; Verville, Jim Laws.

Also attending council meetings with a non-voting power were Elwood House, Maxine Hart; and Campus Crier editors, Jim Roady and Peggy Eaton.

Honor Council

With Len Oebser as chairman, Honor Council worked closely with the students and administration to lessen the number of student disciplinary cases. During fall quarter, meetings were held with the residence groups to clarify the Honor system at C.W. C.E. Relatively few disciplinary cases reached the Honor Council.

Because of this, constructive projects were undertaken to increase the morale of the student body.

Other work of the Council included working with S.G.A. on freshmen orientation, counseling and elections.

Honor Council is composed of six students Len Oebser, Lyle Evans, Avis Face, Bill Hiblar, Verna Jones, and Lenore Schaus, who were elected by all-campus elections during the year.

Election Committee

The election committee was formed in 1942-43 as a permanent committee of S.G.A. The members are appointed by the S.G.A. The committee's main function is conducting all S.G.A. elections.

Members were Harry Drittenbas, Jim Skagen, and Lenore Schaus.

Campus Club Committee

In 1946 a committee responsible for the maintenance of the Campus Club was formed to act upon all appropriations, laws, activities, repairs, and improvements.

The aim of the Campus Club Committee is to give each student the best possible eating place and club that can be offered.

Members of the committee were Leigh Nold, Flossie Mitchell, Dr. Samuelson, Mrs. Hitchcock, and Caroline Scott.

Associated Women Students

It was not until 1940 that Associated Women Students officially became A.W.S. Before that the women were members of a Women's League. A.W.S. is a national organization composed of all women enrolled in college.

A.W.S. social functions are many and colorful. In the fall, A.W.S. sponsored a coffee hour to welcome new students. In December, it held a Christmas Fireside instead of the annual tea. The big tolo formal, The Snowball, took place before the holiday season. To complete the social events were the Mother's Weekend activities in the spring.

Two scholarships are presented each year—one to a dormitory girl and one to an off-campus girl. To earn this scholarship, a girl is judged on character, scholarship and need. A.W.S. is the possessor of a scholarship plaque which is given to the residence group with the highest scholarship average for the year.

Spurs, the national service honorary for sophomore women, is sponsored by A.W.S. The girls are chosen at the end of their freshman year on the basis of scholarship, leadership and character.

The elected council consists of Dot Safreed, president; Ruth Dougherty, vice-president; Myrtle Hatcher, vice-president, fall quarter; Mary Coulter secretary, Carol Reuter Basse, treasurer; Dot Voss, courtesy chairman; and Pat Fenno and Angela Greene social commissioners. The advisers were Mrs. Hitchcock and Miss Garrison. The presidents of all women's dorms and various organization presidents complete the Executive council.

Future Teachers of America

The Smyser-Whitney chapter of the Future Teachers of America was organized under the sponsorship of the local chapter of the Washington Education Association in June, 1948. At that time a constitution was drawn up and by-laws drafted. Plans were also made for the following year in which the organization really got its start.

The F.T.A. chapter is designed to develop ideals and power in the lives of its members, to enrich the spirit of college life, to advance the interests of the teaching profession, to promote the welfare of children, and to foster the education of all people. Any student majoring in education is eligible to join the organization.

This years officers were Stan Kibbey, president; Dave Berg, vice-president; Margaret Hummel, secretary; Antonette VanEaton, treasurer; Marie Johnson, librarian; and Maxine Hart, social commissioner.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honorary, has been an active organization on the Central Washington campus since February, 1938. The purpose of this group is to encourage and recognize high standards of preparation for teaching. Students in education who have maintained high scholarship, commendable personal qualities, and an interest in educational ideals are recognized through membership.

During the fall quarter Kappa Delta Pi held several meetings and served as sponsor for a student teaching panel. During the fall a Homecoming breakfast was also held. The pledge breakfast and initiation of new members took place early in the winter quarter. In the spring, meetings and pledge groups were assigned. The year ended with the traditional spring banquet.

This year the officers of Kappa Delta Pi have been Alden Clark, president; June Carr, vice-president; Esther Tuomi, secretary; Dr. Robert Funderburk, treasurer; Ruth Dougherty, historian-recorder; and Dr. George Dickson, counselor.

Association for Childhood Education

Under the leadership of Barbara Jensen and advisers, Miss Alice Marie Jensen and Mr. LeRoy Weber, the Miesner Branch of the Association for Childhood Education has furthered its purpose of providing means by which members may achieve professional improvement and enjoy professional fellowship, through exchanging ideas and experiences of the wider educational world, and promoting better educational opportunities for children everywhere.

Honorable mention was received for the Homecoming sign. The organization sponsored two performances of the University Touring Theatre's production, "Robin Hood."¹ Students attending Sweezy from other countries were invited to join as honorary members. Delegates attended the National Convention in Seattle in March.

As a main project, the members participated in a puppetry construction and staging program. The ultimate goal was set for presentation of puppet plays to the small children of this area.

Officers for the year were Barbara Jensen, president; Hazel Thomsen, vice-president; Donna Hoffman, secretary; Elaine Callaghan, treasurer; and Mary Lou Dunn, publicity chairman.

Back Row: Joyce Wicks, Joan Hannah, Margaret King, Shirley Slater, Janet Webb, Janice Miller, Ellen Moore, Dorothy Kruzitch, La Rae Abplanalp, Cami Boyd

Dance Club

Dance Club was re-organized in 1947 for the purpose of combining into one group those girls having special interests in dance as an art and those girls who love to dance as a creative activity.

The club's first appearance this year was at Homecoming, when the girls danced very impressively to the Alma Mater as the finale for Stunt Night.

As a part of the annual Christmas Program, along with "The Nativity" and Selections by the College Choir, the members of Dance Club presented their interpretation of "Christmas Fantasy" with a musical background of a medley of favorite Christmas songs.

Sports events also fit into the activities of the club. During the half-time of the basketball game with Whitworth, January 32, the girls put on an exhibition of rhythm dancing with drum accompaniment.

The officers were Joan Anderson, president; Martha Williams, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Anna Pavlov, adviser.

Do Si Do

During the year the club held one student-faculty dance each quarter to help the students become better acquainted. The club also sponsored an all-college dance Spring quarter.

Officers were Paul Phillip, president; Elaine Callaghan, vice-president; Robert Horton, secretary-treasurer; Lou Keene, social commissioner. At the end of fall quarter, Paul Phillips resigned his office. Elaine Callaghan succeeded his as president. Marvin Clark was elected vice-president.

Miss Betty Luntz and Mrs. Walter DenBeste were the advisers.

This organization was founded in the late 20's to provide a way for women to participate in recreation and to meet other students interested in the same purpose. It provides a chance to build sportsmanship through competition.

The activities sponsored this year were volleyball, basketball, baseball, tennis and badminton. Besides these main activities there were hikes, ice skating parties, a weekend camping trip, and a fireside.

Women's Recreation Association

The officers who worked to make this an active year were Francis Isberg, president; Mildred Wilbur, vice-president; and Eleanor Diamond, treasurer; Ann Brigham, social chairman; Duane Rowe, secretary; Anne Vowles, sports manager.

The club backed Homecoming fully with a float which won first place in the comedy section of the parade. The annual initiation was held Feb. 26 in Kamola by candlelight with the banquet following. The year's activities and sports were very successful and well attended.

Recreation Club

In 1949 the recreation club was organized to give recreation majors and minors an opportunity to exchange ideas and to gain experience in their field.

Activities of the club for the year 1950-51 have been helping with Sweezy Day, Dad's Day, planning programs for half-time entertainment at the basketball games, and directing an after-school recreation program at the College Elementary School.

Officers elected fall quarter were Bill Wilkinson, president; Fred Peterson, vice-president; Myrna Yaden, secretary; and Dave Duclaw, treasurer.

Social Democrats

In October of 1948, a group of students met and formed the League for Social Democracy. Willbur Pool and Warren Faulkner originated the idea and many other members supported the organization.

The League endeavored to keep the meetings interesting by the visits of speakers and participation by the members in forums.

Betty Preston, Hazel Thomsen, Barbara Allbritton, Jackie Duncan

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics club, composed of majors and minors in Home Economics, was organized in 1943 and is a member of the National Home Economics Association.

This year's activities were the annual welcoming tea held during Homecoming as well as a bazaar and open house in May. The catering committee, with Shirley Pearsall as chairman, served many organizations by preparing refreshments for dances, teas, and banquets.

The club was represented at the Province Workshop held at C.P.S. in the fall and the state convention in the spring.

At each meeting a guest speaker added to the interest of the meeting by presenting a demonstration or topic which was of interest to all.

This year's officers were Barbara Allbritton, president; Hazel Thompson, vice-president; and Joann Pennington, secretary.

 2nd row: Bob Reesman, Dr. Mohler, Pete Whitson, Max Weed, Jack Guns
 Front row: Angela Greene, Shirley Groth, Alice Kitt, Julie Williams

Herodoteans

Herodoteans was organized in 1923 by Professor Fish, a group of history majors, and others interested in the social sciences. The Herodoteans Club is the oldest club on campus.

The purpose is to develop and stimulate a greater interest in matters relating to history, social problems, and international relations.

The membership is limited to those who have at least fifteen hours of advanced work in history, sociology, economics, political science, or international relations with a grade of "B" or better. Membership is by invitation.

Herodotean meetings consist of talks by faculty members or guest speakers, student panel discussions, and occasional public forums.

The social program included initiation, annual Homecoming breakfast, and the Bean Feed.

The officers are elected each spring for the following year. This year's officers were Ronald Dahlin, president; Shirley Groth, vice-president and social commissioner; Alice Kitt, secretary; Pete Whitson, treasurer; adviser was Dr. S. R. Mohler, of the History Department.

Whitbeck Club was formed in 1936 and named in honor of Dr. Ray Whitbeck, professor of geography at the University of Wisconsin.

The organization is very informal. Monthly meetings in the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Shaw usually consisted of an interesting speaker who showed movies or pictures and talked about countries which he or she had visited. There were also parties. At the end of autumn quarter the club had the traditional Christmas party; in February it had another party; and in June the traditional Whitbeck breakfast which was cooked, served, and eaten "in the rough."

Industrial Club

The C.W.C. Industrial Arts Club organized of majors and minors, was and is affiliated with the American Industrial Arts Association in the fall quarter of 1949. The major objective is promotion of Industrial Arts education.

Fall quarter officers were Dave English, president; Bob Spies and Hal Mazant, vice presidents, Bob Cole, secretary; and Dick Eckel, treasurer. Mr. Sogge and Mr. Bakke, advisers, guided production of children's sleighs which were sold at Christmas.

During winter quarter a social for members, wives, and girls friends was planned; also there was a coffee hour for the Regional Executives of the Washington Industrial Arts Teachers.

The chapter of the national art fraternity, Kappa Pi, on Central's Campus is Alpha Beta. Bud McDonald, who has headed the group as president, has been aided by vice-president, Don Scott; Secretary, Loraine Mansperger; treasurer, Don Tracey; and historian, Tommy Kundsén. Mr. Esko Rentola, art instructor, has been the adviser.

This year Kappa Pi revised an old custom and united with the Maskers and Jesters to sponsor the Beau Arts Dance. The club also sponsored a bazaar.

The standards for full membership in the club are quite high, to be eligible an art major must have thirty hours of art with at least a "B" average and at least a "C" average in all other subjects. Freshmen may be active as provisional members and sophomores as pledges.

College Broadcasters Club

The school year of 1950-51 is the second year the College Broadcasters has been an active organization on the Sweezy's campus. The membership of the club has doubled since last year.

The club operated through the facilities of radio station KXLE. The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in radio work and to broadcast important coming events on Central's campus.

One of the main events of the year's activities for the College Broadcasters was the presentation of the 1950 Homecoming broadcast. Throughout the scholastic year the club gave several other broadcasts. They also operated the P. A. system at the college basketball games.

Ken Gohrick, president, withdrew from college at the close of the fall quarter to join the armed services; Gene Wells, vice-president, served as president for the remainder of the year. Nancy Hill was secretary-treasurer and Miss Servine was the adviser.

InterVarsity Christians

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship was organized on Central's campus about twelve years ago.

The group's purpose is to provide Christian inspiration and fellowship for the students at Sweezy.

The outstanding events of the year were the traditional fall and spring week-end retreats and the spring Dessert Supper. During February, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship sponsored the noted Latvian lecturer, Dr. Karlis Leyasmeyer.

The officers included Jim Clarke, president; Audrey Beslow, vice-president; Virginia Becker (fall), and Ruth Carrell (winter and spring), secretary-treasurer; Mildred Castle, and Rudy Brownell, publicity chairmen; and Wilma and Ed Zeiger, recreation chairmen. Dr. Max Klingbeil was adviser for the group.

Maskers and Jesters

The Maskers and Jesters organization had its beginning in 1936 when Russell W. Lemke, the speech professor at C.W.C.E. at that time, organized the club to recognize merit, stimulate interest in the theater, and to provide opportunities for social enjoyment.

This year the activities for Maskers and Jesters have been a coffee hour at Homecoming; co-sponsoring with Kappa Pi the semi-formal "Beaux Arts" winter quarter; a group picnic in the spring quarter; the presentation of one-act plays; and several initiations throughout the year.

Officers for the year of 1950-1951 were Stan Kibbey, master masker; Don Fenton, minor masker; Janet Nelsen, pen masker; Ramon Ross, money masker; Marilyn Dreher, fun masker; Norman Howell, adviser.

The Spewack comedy, "Three Blind Mice", taking a sly laugh at bureaucracy, the armed forces, and humanity in general, was the medium for introducing much new talent to the Central stage.

Old and new faces alike were well received as they passed in and out of the Bureau of Seeds and Standards, a defunct government agency. "Two Blind Mice" was under the direction of Norman Howell and assistant director Dave Berg.

Suspense surrounding psychopathic murder was the tone set for the winter quarter production of the mystery "Night Must Fall" by Emlyn Williams.

Rehearsals were begun under the direction of Miss Servine before her recall to duty in the Waacs. The final production was given under the direction of Mr. King from Washington State College.

Sigma Mu Epsilon

Sigma Mu Epsilon, Central Washington College's music honorary, was formed on this campus in 1936.

The organization was created for students interested in music, and is open to music majors and minors of sophomore standing or above.

Sigma Mu activities for this year have been the social meeting for prospective members in the fall, the initiation luncheon, an alumni breakfast, and a Homecoming float which won second prize. The club sponsored a Sunday afternoon radio broadcast, the "Concert Hour," under the direction of Ben Owre, also the annual inter-dormitory choral competition.

The officers for the year were Lloyd Williams, president; Marion Routh, vice-president; Gloria Kraushar, secretary; Gene Williams, treasurer; Shirley Blodgett, historian; and Helen Cooley and Eva Savage, social commissioners. Their faculty adviser was Mr. Bird.

Standing: John Hill, Dean Thompson, Elsie Melton, Mr. Christensen, Ralph Smith. Seated: Elton Richardson, Bruce Kollmar, Dale Newby, Larry McVey

Band

On June 3, the Central Washington Concert band, under the direction of Bert Christianson, presented its annual Commencement concert which ended one of the busiest years in the band's history.

During the football season the marching band again presented interesting and clever marching maneuvers under the capable leadership of drum majors Waldie Anderson and Ted Turner. Under the direction of various student directors a smaller pep unit was on hand to entertain during basketball season.

Highlighting activities were the two concert tours which took the organization to nine high schools in the North-Central part of the state during winter quarter and to eight cities in the Seattle area in spring quarter. Charles Mason, senior music major, was appointed student director of the group during the concert season.

 Front Row: Cordelia Rotous, Merle Trimble, Verna Mae Shriner

The "Band Blare" has become one of the most popular social events at Central and the dance this year was no exception. Again on Sweezy Day the outdoor lawn concert provided entertainment as a part of the festivities.

The band council for this year consisted of Ralph Smith, president; Dean Thompson, vice-president; Verna Shriner, secretary-treasurer; Marvin Clark, property manager; Mary Hill and Robert Winters, librarians; Waldie Anderson and Ted Turner, drum majors; and Charles Mason, student director.

Choir

Among the busiest groups about the Central campus has been the Central Singers, the concert choir of Central Washington College, under the direction of Wayne S. Hertz, chairman of the division of music.

Chosen through strenuous auditions and try-outs from a large group of 140 voices, the seventy comprising the concert group are in constant demand by churches, schools, and civic groups. This year has been one of the busiest for the Singers. As one of the best choirs in the history of the school, they have performed for over thirty schools, eight church and civic groups, and have appeared in numerous radio broadcasts, including the Voices of the Northwest over KOMO.

 Bottom Row: Edith Bessley, Wilma Shelley, Ann Hallawell, Ethel Routsala, Myrna Yaden, Marlene Long, Norma Symmonds

May 8 the Choir joined forces with the Concert Band in an evening concert in Yakima. The Music Department presents at least one major work each year. This year the Central Singers presented the Mozart Requiem before an enthusiastic audience. This, in addition to the over eighteen songs that the group has learned, comprise a repertoire that any group could well be proud of.

Pep Club

Pep Club, consisting of seventy-five freshman and sophomore girls, was organized several years ago, the purpose being to instill pep and enthusiasm in the students of CWCE at games held here.

Officers of the club are Caroline Scott, president; Betty Triebel, vice president; Barbara Tubbs, secretary; Etta Sheek, treasurer.

Activities this year were selling hot chocolate at football games, drilling for football games, for the Homecoming game and parade. The club sponsored a mixer, pep rally, candy sale, and sold poms-poms at the basketball games.

Four song leaders elected by the members this year were Rosemary Aumann, Donna Brewer, June Higgins, and Barbara Bennett. Club members were easily distinguished by a bright crimson sweater with a large "W" on the front and by newly acquired silver membership pins.

Yell Leaders

Elected to positions on yell staff this year were LaRae Abplanalp and Tom and Dick Jacka. LaRae was a freshman at Central Washington College this year. She graduated from Highline High school in Seattle where she served as Yell Queen for two years. LaRae is majoring in Home Economics and minoring in Physical Education. She plans to teach after graduating. Her on-campus home is Kennedy Hall.

The Jacka twins were seniors this year, majoring in Commercial Education and minoring in Physical Education. They are graduates of Hoquiam High school where they served as yell leaders, and were transfers to Central Washington from Grey's Harbor College, where they also served as Yell Kings. They reside at Munson Hall.

Intramurals

The Men's Intramural Association of Central functions under a board composed of a faculty member and representatives from the dormitories, Verville, and Kaags. The governing board members this year: George Holman, chairman; Dick Palmer, co-chairman; and Gordon Adams, secretary-treasurer. "Sauce" Feroglia was Intramural manager and Shelton Kem was the advisor.

Any man enrolled at Central and not participating in other organized sports may participate in the intramural activities of flag football, volleyball, basketball, baseball, or track. The Nicholson trophy is awarded to the organization which garners the most activity and participation points.

W Club

The Crimson W Club has probably existed since intercollegiate athletics started on the campus. The purpose of the W Club is to bring together in one group all letter winners in varsity sports. The officers for this year were Don Doran, president; Danny Iyall, vice-president; Harry Drittenbas, secretary-treasurer; Hank Baumgart, sergeant at arms; L. G. Carmody, adviser.

Again this year, as in the past, the W Club sold programs at both football and basketball games. In addition plenty of coffee and hotdogs were sold to the gridiron fans.

Following tradition, the club had the honor of electing the Colonial Ball Queen, and also sponsoring the Varsity Ball.

To end the year in a grand finale, the annual W Club picnic along with the initiation of all new lettermen was held at the Swauk Recreation Bowl.

The Spurs is a national honorary for sophomore women. It was first organized on the campus in 1948-49.

Sacrifice, Patriotism, Understanding, Responsibility, and Service — the first letters spell SPURS — are the membership requirements of this group. The twenty sophomore girls of this self-perpetuating organization are chosen from freshman girls on the basis of the above qualities and high scholastic standing.

Spurs

The purpose of Spurs is to be of service to the college in every possible way. This year's activities included ushering, helping with freshman orientation, serving at A.W.S. teas, holding the regional convention, sponsoring a dance, etc. Tapping and initiation of new Spurs was held in the spring and concluded Spurs' activities for this year.

Officers were Barbara Clark, president; Mildred Castle, vice-president; Barbara Tubbs, secretary; Lorelei Coy, treasurer; Ruth Middaugh, editor; Verna Mae Shiner, historian; Beverly Breshears, expansion chairman; Janet Lowe, Adviser.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is a service organization. Since its birthdate it has spread to over 230 college and alumni chapters. Its ranks are open to any college man who is or has ever been affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America and desires to continue to be of service through the principles of the scout oath and laws. Eta Xi Chapter at CWCE was chartered on May 15, 1949.

Officers for 1950-51 were Kenneth Johnson, president; Ray L. Smith, vice-president; Glenn Edmison, recording secretary; Willis Runquist, corresponding secretary; Bob Notman, alumni secretary; John G. Eyres, treasurer-historian; Benny Tobia, sergeant-at-arms.

Highlights of the year's activities were burning-the-night-oil while building and erecting the big campus boundary sign, reorganizing the parking system, hours of hauling wood into the Swauk scout lodge, and the suspense of the Annual Handsome Harry contest and dance in which Bob Fitzpatrick of Montgomery Hall was crowned Handsome Harry III.

Back row: Mr. Sogge, Bob Horton, Merle Meyer, Jim Dekker, Marshal Keating, Mr. Johnson

Intercollegiate Knights

The Claw Chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights is the oldest service organization on the Central Campus. The Claw was first organized as a local service group in 1924 and became affiliated with the National I.K. in 1927.

The motto of the Intercollegiate Knights is Service—Sacrifice—Loyalty. Their activities include patrolling of registration lines, football, basketball, and baseball games. During Homecoming the I.K.'s take charge of all activities concerning the queen and her court.

The I.K. is not a social fraternity, but the Chapter promoted the first formal of the year, the I.K. Formal, and also the I.K. Mixer. The I.K.-Spur Picnic and the Old Member-New Member Basketball Games were among the social activities of the club.

The officers of the Claw Chapter for 1950-51 were Chalmers Musgrove, Duke; Jim Dekker, Scribe; Jim Woody, Historian and Chapter Relations Officer; Larry Clement, Chancellor; Merle Meyer, Expansion Representative; Nick Slater, Jester; and Harry Swanson, Guard. Mr. Sogge and Mr. Johnson are Chapter advisers.

Sigma Tau Alpha

Front row: Joyce Bonathan, Gwen Collins, Martha Williams, Ruth Middaugh, Marilyn Yahn, Shirley Neidermeyer

Sigma Tau Alpha was first organized in 1948 by Past Worthy Advisers and members of the Order of Rainbow for Girls. The purpose of this organization is to render service to the school and students.

At this year's Homecoming festivities, members of Sigma Tau Alpha helped organize the various games held at the Campus Club. Besides putting on a regular initiation each quarter and social events for the members, the club sponsored a dance during Spring quarter.

This year's officers were Ruth Middaugh, president; Barb Hawkins (Sigma) vice-president; Martha Williams (Tau), secretary; Marilyn Richardson (Alpha), treasurer; Glenna Fitz, chaplain; Bev Breshears, marshal; Joyce Bonathan, historian; Margie Johns, social chairman; Mary Ann Kuharic, scribe; Helen Burkholder, musician; Mrs. Burton Foote, adviser.

Off Campus Women

OCW was organized to unify all off-campus women and help them enjoy college life more. This is an important purpose, as the social activities of the dorms are usually not open to the off-campus women. Thus OCW creates activities of its own during the year.

The events this year were the editing of "Who's Who for CWCE", conducting mixers and the annual May Prom.

The advisers were Miss Luntley and Miss Finseth.

Kaags

The Kaags Club was formed January, 1949, from the Off-Campus Men's Club. Since then they have striven to bring together a widely dispersed group of men. The Kaags have the privilege of participation in planning and carrying out intramural activities, social functions and student government activities.

During the year the Kaags participated in several campus activities. They constructed a sign and put on a skit for Homecoming. During winter quarter they put on a Juke Box Dance, the following month the Winter Carnival. This event was sponsored by the Kaags and the Off-Campus Women's Club. In the spring the Kaags and the Off-Campus Women sponsored the May Prom. Near the end of the quarter Kaags held the annual Sweetheart Banquet to honor the Kaag who has contributed most to the club during the year.

Publications

Campus Crier

As the official weekly publication on Sweezy's campus, the Campus Crier has striven to bring to the students a complete report on items of interest to all. It has been the Crier's ambition to give the students a representative paper, covering all departments and activities on Central's campus, throughout the school year.

During fall quarter the editorship duties were assumed by Peggy Eaton and Jim Roady. When Peggy left school at the end of fall quarter, Sheila Waldron took over the associate editor post for winter and spring quarters.

With the yearbook of 1950-51, we hope to bring to you a complete and meaningful book of memories of another year at Central.

It is our sincere hope that with this book the future years can be made brighter with reminiscent glimpses into the highlights of your college days, days spent with classmates and faculty on the campus at Sweezy. We hope that this book will bring back to you the small personal triumph as well as the larger more heralded events.

We only hope that this yearbook has achieved what we set out to do.

The Hyakem Staff.

Elwood House

The year 1951 marks Elwood's birthday as the smallest residence group on campus. Group spirit was evident, with the twenty-three "Elwoodites" sponsoring two all-college dances, a pep rally, and a Homecoming skit, in which Mrs. Deighton, housemother, participated. Also enjoyed during the year were the coffee hours, a fireside, and the annual barbecue in the spring.

Fall quarter officers were Maxine Hart, president; DeEtta Evans, vice-president; Mary Coulter, secretary-treasurer; and Rosie Woulf, social commissioner.

Winter quarter officers were Maxine Hart, president; Jeanne Ruotesala, vice-president; Dee Yeager, secretary-treasurer; and Rosie Woulf, social commissioner.

Kamola

Back row: Flossie Mitchell, Lenore Schaus, Rosie O'Callaghan
2nd row: Joyce Bonathan, Mrs. Prater, Kathy Mackenroth

Kamola's traditional fall initiation of freshmen was well attended and "enjoyed" by both the Frosh, who were put through their paces, and the underclassmen, who came to watch and supervise.

Officers elected to preside over the dorm's activities this year were Marilyn Dreher, president; Lenore Schaus, vice-president; Rosaleen O'Callaghan, secretary; Joyce Bonathan, treasurer; Flossie Mitchell, representative; and Glenna Fitz and Kathy Mackenroth, social chairmen.

Social activities for the year included dorm parties, firesides, a pep rally, and two dances—"The Rat Race", and the Spring Formal. Kamola girls actively participated in the Pep Club, W.R.A., A.W.S., and S.G.A. committees. Homecoming Queen Muff Gilchrist and Princess Glenna Fitz were from Kamola.

Our Housemothers at Kamola this year were Mrs. Prater and Mrs. Snyder.

Kennedy

2nd row: Joan Heppell, Caroline Scott, Barbara Clark
Front row: Marian Coleman, La Rae Abplanalp, Verna Mae Shriner

Named in honor of Miss Ora Kennedy, former director of dormitories at Central and house-mother of Kamola Hall, Kennedy Hall was open for occupancy in October of 1948. Now in its third year of activity, Kennedy is rapidly gaining a history traditional to college dormitories.

Fall quarter 1950 began with the initiation of freshmen girls. "Flapper's Fandango," first dance of the school year, was sponsored by Kennedy Hall. Kennedy sponsored a pep rally called "The Perfect Match." Among the many window displays adorning the campus prior to Christmas, Kennedy's was outstanding and won first prize. Highlighting the social calendar spring quarter was the Kennedy Formal held in May.

Officers for the year were Marge Woods, president; Verna Mae Shriner, vice-president; Pat Buchanan, secretary; Barbara Clark, treasurer; Virginia Neal, social commissioner; and Margaret Hedstrom, S.G.A. representative. Housemother of Kennedy Hall is Mrs. Skinner.

Sue Lombard

Back row: Frances Isberg, Lorelei Coy, Edith Maines, Audrey Beslow, Joanne Pennington, Nita Peterson, Lou Keene

Sue Lombard got off to a friendly start by initiating the freshmen members early in the year. The Hall's Homecoming efforts were rewarded by a first prize in the skit contest. Sue also entered a sign and float. The all-college dance, "Jinx Jive," was a huge success. During the Christmas season the dorm had its annual Christmas fireside, and also won a first prize in individual window decorations.

The annual house dance was held during spring quarter. There were also numerous parties during the year. The last event of the year was a barbecue for Sue girls and their dates.

Sue Lombard officers were Joan Bowen, president; Lou Keene, vice-president; Francis Isberg, secretary; Joanne Criss, treasurer; Joann Pennington, social commissioner; Barbara George, S.G.A. representative; and Lorelei Coy, courtesy chairman. Wing leaders were Edith Maines, Nita Peterson, Audrey Beslow and Margaret Loseth. Mrs. Humphrey was housemother.

Alford

Back row: Waldie Anderson, Lew Kumetat, Lester Kramer
2nd row: Jim Winkleman, James Gleeson
Front row: John Hart, Mrs. Sears, Bill Wilkinson

Alford hall got the year off to a bang-up start with an initiation for the freshmen. One of the highlights of the fun was a scavenger hunt in which each frosh boy got a designated article to bring to the dorm.

Many of the articles were a bit hard to find and the hunt lasted until the wee hours of the morning. As a climax of the initiation the upper classmen were tossed into the irrigation ditch.

Two other activities for the year were the "Bubble Bounce," fall quarter and a sport dance, winter quarter.

Officers for the hall during the fall quarter were Lew Kumetat, president; Les Kramer, vice-president and social commissioner; Jim Gleeson, secretary-treasurer; John Hart and Bill Wilkinson, sergeants-at-arms; and George Holman, sports chairman.

Carmody

Bill Case, Joel Rindal, Mrs. Crum, Miles Goodwin, Bill Kamo

Carmody Hall started fall quarter in an unusual manner this year. For the first time in several years a freshman initiation was held. An effort was made to make it original and enjoyable to all.

The highlight of Carmody's activities this year was the Thunder-Mug Benefit dance held winter quarter. It succeeded in its purpose.

Many hours were spent on the sign for Homecoming which consisted of a Life magazine cover featuring the dormitory's interpretation of a Rube Goldberg machine. It received third place.

Officers were elected quarterly with Bill Case and Bill Quall sharing presidential honors. Miles Goodwin and Richard Hanson handled the vice-presidential duties while "Zip" Mason and Jerry Smith filled the secretary-treasurer position. "Coaches" Bill Comeau and Don Ridge, as intramural chairmen, did a fine job in assisting Carmody in coming out on or near the top in all intramural activities.

Montgomery

Bill Jarrett, Wally Woodworth, Mrs. Embree, Walt Searle, Carl Malnati

Montgomery Hall first became a men's residence hall in 1948. Previous to that it had been used as a women's dorm. Since then, about 150 men have lived there.

Officers for the 1950-51 years were, fall quarter: Carl Malnati, president; Walt Searle, vice-president; Wally Woodworth, secretary-treasurer; Bill Jarrett, social commissioner; and Andy Taggart, athletic commissioner. Officers winter quarter were Dean Thompson, president; Andy Taggart, vice-president; Larry Nelson, secretary-treasurer; Benny Tobia, social commissioner; and Joe Erickson, athletic commissioner.

Mrs. Happy Embree was housemother fall quarter, but left to take another job. Our new housemother was Mrs. Peggy Palmer.

Montgomery won the first annual noise-making contest, and its candidate, Bob Fitzpatrick, won the title "Handsome Harry." All phases of Homecoming competition were entered. The second annual Montgomery "Snowflurry" sports dance was presented in January.

Munroe

Front row: Buz Rodman, Corky O'Grady

The main activity presented by Munro Hall was a dance, the Platter Party, co-sponsored by Sue Lombard Hall. The hall also participated in intramural sports during the year.

Officers for the year were (fall quarter) Jim Skagen, president; Paul Phillips, vice-president; Pete Geffe, secretary; John Mason, treasurer; John Briskey, social commissioner; Dick Jacka, athletic commissioner; Buz Rodman, interclub council representative. (Winter quarter) Darrel Johnson, president; Joe Wilcox, vice-president; Lloyd Messersmith, treasurer; Harry Lucas, secretary; Gordon Adams, athletic commissioner; Dick Eichler, social commissioner; John Mason, interclub council representative. (Spring quarter) Dean Thompson, president; Ned Face, vice-president; Lloyd Messersmith, treasurer; Larry Clement, secretary; Al Iyall, athletic commissioner; Dick Eichler, social commissioner; and Jack Lyber, interclub council representative.

Munson

2nd row: Mrs. Prater, Bob LeRoux, Bernard Norton

Munson Hall is the oldest men's dormitory on Sweezy's campus. The purpose of Munson is to promote cooperative effort and all business and activities that may contribute to the general welfare of the dormitory.

The Dorm held a fire-side with Kamola which proved to be very successful. Munson also held open house.

One of the high spots of the year was the annual Munson Picnic.

Officers for the year were Don Scott, president; Dick Palmer, vice-president; Jim Kato, secretary; Bernie Norton, treasurer; Harry Drittenbas, S.G.A. representative; Tom Miller, Inter-club representative; Chuck Larsen and Bob LeRoux social commissioners.

Vetville

Jim Laws, Alma Milne, Pat Ingles, Wayne Milne

Vetville was organized in 1946 to solve problems arising in the community and to promote social activities among its residents.

Vetville held many activities this year. Among those most remembered by the residents were the Christmas party and the annual farewell picnic. Vetville, for the first time since the community was organized, put up an outdoor Christmas tree and fixed up a social room.

Winning third prize in the Homecoming float entries and adding twelve new residents to the area were the outstanding achievements during the past year. Also, the Vetville athletes participated wholeheartedly in intra-mural sports, and there were Vetville musicians in the college band and orchestra.

Officers for the year were Wayne Milne, mayor; Alma Milne, secretary; Pat Ingles, treasurer; Jim Laws, S.G.A. representative; John Gill, athletic director; and Connie Milne and Norma Hanberg, social chairmen.

Football

In looking at the Evergreen Conference standings, it appears that the Central Wildcats had a very unsuccessful football season. But final standings do not tell the inside story of all the hard work and fighting spirit which the Wildcats displayed in every game. The team, under their new coach and former Central griddier, L. G. Carmody, was a success regardless of what the standings may show. Most of the Central gridders played their first year under the double-wing offensive system and were a threat to nearly every team in the league. More than once Sweezy was on the move when the final whistle blew.

For their first game of the season the Big-Red men traveled to Salem, Oregon, to engage Willamette University. After allowing Willamette two touchdowns, Central's defenses stiffened and held until the final quarter when the Oregonians hit paydirt again, resulting in the final score of 20-0. The greatest weakness for the Wildcats was an obvious lack of offensive punch.

P.L.C. was the next foe for the Cats in a home contest at the Rodeo Field. The greatest part of the game was a see-saw battle in which the Lutes pushed over one touchdown late in the first half. This lone score stood as the difference, with the game ending 6-0. During the closing minutes of the game Mickey Naish sparked a running and passing attack which ran out on downs on the P.L.C. two yard line.

At Lewiston, Central was again defeated but found its scoring punch in a 34-20 decision to Northern Idaho College of Education. Blocked punts and fumbles were the underlying causes for N.I.C.E.'s victory margin.

HONORS

Again this year a Pacific Northwest football player received Little All-American recognition for his great ability. Central's Jack Hawkins took the honors this year, being selected first string guard. Besides this top honor Jack was placed on the second string Little All-Coast, received honorable mention on the All-Coast team, and made all-conference first string, being honorary co-captain with Dynamite Don Doran. For their able defensive play two other Centralites were placed on the all-conference team. Eric Beardsley, safety man, and Gary Opsal, defensive end, were the two Cats receiving this distinction.

Mickey Naish, spark-plug for the team, was voted the most inspirational player award by his teammates. Receiving the best blocker award was tackle Newt Kier, and outstanding freshman honors were bestowed upon Don Rundle.

Lincoln Bowl in Tacoma proved to be the happiest scene for all Cat players, coaches and fans. During the first quarter, defenseman Don Doran intercepted a flat pass and scampered down the line to score the game's only touchdown. The remainder of the game was largely defensive action, as the Wildcats booted on early downs, keeping the ball down in Logger Territory. To beat C.P.S. is always the greatest goal of the season and the Cat's hunger was again satisfied this year.

At home again the Carmody gridders ran into a tough Oregon College of Education team and lost a hard-played game, 20-13. The winning margin could have been erased if C.W.C.'s defenses had been set on the first play from scrimmage. A big hole was found in the center of the Cats' defenses, and on the first play a 56 yard run gave the Wolves a 7-0 lead. Propst and Walker scored the two Central touchdowns behind the hard work of the rest of the team. Walker's score was on a pass by Naish. Jack Hawkins as usual stood out on defense as well as offense.

Highly touted Western handed Central its next defeat 26-0 in a muddy contest at Bellingham. Again the Cats' offense lagged as they netted 93 yards from scrimmage. The Vikings took well to the liquid surroundings, piling up four touchdowns.

In Spokane, Central lost a close contest to Whitworth 19-14 in a homecoming affair. It was all Whitworth in the first half, and during the third quarter the score was 19-0. Then the Cats started to roar. Propst and Gene Briscoe figured largely in the first touchdown and a Propst-to-Wood pass ended a second drive in pay dirt. The final gun again saw the team fighting for those victory points as John Hill was hit with a pass by Propst and nearly got away.

In the Armistice Day game at the Rodeo Field Central had to overcome St. Martin's 14-point lead to come out with a 14-14 tie. The Rangers first T.D. came on the half kick off. The kick, instead of being downed, was allowed to roll to the end zone and was recovered for six points by St. Martin's. Central outplayed the Rangers, but could not outscore them. Ted Lea scored Central's first six points on a line smash and the game was tied up by a pass, from Naish to Harvey Wood, good for 28 yards.

Next to steam into town were the champions-to-be, Eastern's Savages, for the Wildcats' Homecoming game. All hope of wrecking the Savages' chances for their first league championship was soon lost. A blocked punt set up one T.D. and intercepted passes resulted in two others, and when the scoring was over the count stood at 26-0. The team ended the season in typical form, fighting hard to the finish as the game ended with Central on Eastern's one-foot line.

Basketball

Which Evergreen Conference team was the best? This is a very debatable question as Eastern, winner in conference play, placed third to PLC and CPS in the NAIB playoffs in Spokane. PLC took the tournament by a close margin and journeyed to Kansas City only to lose out in their first game. Whitworth was also a constant threat to these teams.

Besides an evenly matched big four there was a fight between Central, Western and St. Martins for fifth place. By defeating Eastern in their final game, Western truly earned the fifth place spot. This left the Wildcats with a tie for sixth place, trailed only by UBC.

Two of the best played games observed by Central students were the two overtime games against Seattle U. and CPS. Although both of these games were lost, moral victories were won by good showings.

Central played many talented teams during their 1950-51 season and chose as their all-opponent squad players who will be long remembered in Northwest and even national basketball circles. This all-opponent team includes; Dick Eicher, Eastern; Gene Lundegaard, PLC; Bob Gambold, WSC; Johnny O'Brien, Seattle U.; Andy Johnson, Portland U.

BASKETBALL HONORS

Chosen as honorary captain for the 1950-51 season was dependable Billy Lee, junior guard. Besides this honor, Bill was second highest scorer for the Wildcats with a nine point game average in conference play, and was honorable mention all-conference.

Top point maker was big Hal Jones who had an 18 point game average and a total of 257 points. These 257 points were enough to break the old league scoring record of 228 all conference second team. With a 41 point effort Jones also all conference first team. With a 41 point effort Jones also broke the single game scoring record in a home game with Western.

The most inspirational Centralite, Harvey Wood, was the unanimous choice for the 1950-51 award. This makes Harvey's fourth inspirational award with a previous award in basketball and two in baseball.

Back row: Hank Baumgart, Lloyd Massaramith, Ken Cochran, Tiny Bellamy, Russ Watkins, Don Johnstone, Bud Kuhlman, Nelson Spangler, Bob Bland, Wes Borenson
 2nd row: Coach Arnie Faust, Lloyd Conner, Danny Iyall, Chuck Satterlee, Larry O'Neil, Joe Gilliam, Tex Maines, Dick Gimmel, Gordy Olsen

On April 28 in a game against Eastern, Centralites saw Coach Faust's baseball team play its best game of the early season. The pitching of Billy Lee was quite well supported in the field as well as at the plate. Final score of this one was 13-4.

Games played during the early part of the season were generally high scoring affairs with the Cats losing six while winning three. Besides Eastern wins were registered over Gonzaga and Larson Air Base. Results up to time of printing were as follows:

CWC 18	Gonzaga	6
CWC 8	Larson Air Base	1
CWC 16	Seattle U.	18
CWC 9	Seattle U.	12
CWC 4	Larson Air Base	10
CWC 2	Seattle U.	16
CWC 2	Seattle U.	14
CWC 6	Eastern	16
CWC 13	Eastern	4

Baseball

Remaining on the schedule are two games with Eastern, four with Whitworth, and one each with Gonzaga and Seattle Pacific.

Starting lineup for the Wildcats generally found Bill Hiblar, Dale Krueger, and Chuck Satterlee in the outfield with Bill Case chief substitute. In the infield Russ Watkins played first, Harvey Wood second, and Mickey Naish short. Competing for third base were Corky O'Grady, Bob Bland and Lloyd Conner. Dan Iyall and Wes Boreson were top Cat catchers. Other chuckers besides Lee were Tiny Bellamy, Dick Gemmill and Joe Gilliam. Watkins was the only freshman to crack the starting squad.

Regardless of its slow start, if the team continues playing ball as it did against Eastern, the remainder of the season should be very successful.

Upper right: INFIELD, Harvey Wood, 2nd; Russ Watkins, 1st; Don Johnstone, utility; Corky O'Grady, 3rd; Danny Iyall, catcher; Mickey Naish, ss.
Lower right: INFIELD, Sonny Darich, utility; Bud Kuhlman, utility; Bob Bland, utility; Lloyd Conner, utility; Wes Boreson, catcher

At the time of printing, Coach Nicholson's Racketeers had romped through half of their schedule with four wins, a loss and a tie. The tie was in a practice game with Yakima J.C. and the loss was to Seattle U. In return engagements Seattle U. and Yakima J.C. were defeated as were Seattle Pacific and Eastern. The game scores were as follows:

CWC 5	Y. J. C.	5
CWC 2	Seattle U.	5
CWC 7	Seattle Pacific	0
CWC 4	Seattle U.	3
CWC 7	Y. J. C.	2
CWC 3	Eastern	0

Tennis

Al Adams, Buz Rodman, Bernard Norton, Tom Bostic, Don Duncan, Dick Gilbert, Chalmers Musgrove, Marshall Keating

Mainstays of the team were Don Duncan, Marshall Keating and Al Adams with Bernie Norton, Buz Rodman and Dick Gilbert rounding out the team. Keating is the only freshman on the team and has shown quite well.

The remaining schedule calls for two matches each with Gonzaga and Whitworth and one each with Eastern, Seattle Pacific, and Yakima J.C.

Sweezy track and field men, led by Coach Monte Reynolds, took their first two conference meets by decisive scores, 83 $1/3$ -47 $2/3$ over Western and 78 $1/2$ -52 $1/2$ over P.L.C. Yakima J.C. was also thoroughly out-pointed in a practice meet. Besides the Conference meet at Cheney, matches remain with Whitworth and Eastern.

Track

This year found an accumulation of considerable track talent on the Wildcat campus. A few of the outstanding point-getters were record breaking Orland Anderson, pole vault and broad jump; Bob White, dashes; and Andy Taggart, high jump and hurdles. Although these men collected many points, the meets were decided by the points won by such other track men as Jerry Bailey, 880; Walt Thorp, mile and two miles; Dave Duclaw, discus; Joe Erickson, shot; Ron Dahlin, javelin; Bill Wilkinson, mile; John Richardson, high jump; Dick Barrett, 440; Jack Benner, javelin and hurdles; Bill Minnick, javelin; and Phil Corkrum and Harry Lucas, dashes.

Although track was the only sport held officially in the Evergreen conference this spring, baseball and tennis were also financed by S.G.A. Golf was dropped. Spring sports have offered entertainment for many Sweetians. Besides furnishing entertainment at Central the name of C.W.C. was brought before the state in such a way as to encourage others to attend.

Things may be even tougher financially next year, but it will be the constant desire of all that spring sports will remain at Central.

Snaps

Fall quarter began at Central with a frosh eye-view of the campus, but the gang in the beanies learned fast. By the end of Orientation Week they could find the Ad Building (post office), Auditorium, Library, and the way home. They had also acquired a great deal of patience from waiting in line for everything from health examinations and books to meals.

Hot tea or coffee provided by the Associated Women Students offered time to relax and get acquainted.

With the return of the former students, they received a lesson in democratic rule—no pay phone for Alford Hall. Most frosh learned to take some orders, however—at least during initiation.

And initiation! White-shirted freshmen stamped with the Alford brand begged, borrowed, and—well—borrowed assorted stuff and junk (no cows this year) for their scavenger hunt.

Non-cooperative initiates found plenty of shoes to polish and rooms to clean and could be seen around campus wearing their trousers inside out.

All the college turned out to see Montgomery and Alford frosh pull each other through the irrigation ditch in their annual tug of war. The upperclassmen got their share of wet feet too.

Glamour went out the window as freshman women were transformed into grotesque personifications of how the college co-ed does not look.

Not just the squad, but the band, pep club, and spectators contributed to the color and excitement of football season, making this a year of memories if not victories.

Dances were made colorful too when the frosh initiates turned an ordinary Wednesday night mixer into what looked like a hard-times party. Later their dance—Candyland—scored with some new intermission talent.

Then came the weekend to top all weekends—Homecoming. Beginning with the coronation of the queen, through the game, and right down to the last organization breakfast; Sweezy caught the spirit of the affair.

Alums sat back and watched the show while they and the students gathered memories of the bonfire, stunt night, and the parade, which marked the first time the royal court had ridden on a float.

This year the greased pig race replaced the greased pole fight of former years—less dangerous perhaps and certainly as much fun to watch.

After the signs were taken down and the loud laughter of Homecoming had faded to a reminiscent chuckle, the campus made preparations for the holiday season. The traditional presentation of the Nativity by the Music and Drama departments shared the spotlight with an innovation by the faculty—the Wassail Party.

Monday's assignments and weekend dances waged a weekly battle for students' time.

Whether surrounded by elaborate decorations or none, dancing to a dreamy band or swing records—Joe College and Susie Coed gathered memories of good times with old and new friends.

Wednesday mixers provided another chance for making new acquaintances and getting a fresh start for Friday's tests.

Varied expressions—from humor to preoccupation to intense interest—greeted the great variety of intermission entertainers who paraded across the gym floor.

There were serious singers, impressionists, a barber shop quartet, a can-can dancer, and a multitude of novelty numbers.

Much of this was talent new to Central and a welcome addition to the existing repertoire.

But the main ring attraction was still dancing, and the last number was played much too early for everyone.

"Mr. Interlocutor."

"Yassu, Mr. Bones."

Among the black faces in this annual Rotary Minstrel Show were many college students and faculty members.

With the first snowfall of the year came boots, earmuffs, snowmen, and, of course, the Associated Women Students' Snowball Tolo. Hidden under a blanket of artificial snow, the gym was a fitting background for the brilliant winter formals.

Snow covered the small fir trees around the floor, while tables situated among them gave dancers a place to chat and watch the floor.

The Associated Women were also busy in December giving their Christmas Tea. Caroling was a highlight of both this and the faculty's Wassail Party. The party, complete with Santa, was so successful that it may become a tradition at Sweezy.

Walnut Street, Sue, or Munson—wherever Sweezy students ate—the same conversations could be heard.

"Roast beef again?"

"No string beans, please."

"Could I have more salad?"

Meanwhile the serving crews worked to keep the line moving, and the boys on the dish machines put through an endless stack of trays and glasses.

By standing in the post office any weekday between ten and twelve o'clock you could see nearly every Central student—if you didn't get trampled to death first.

While letters from home were welcome it was the packages of food sent to supplement cafeteria fare that made a hit with roommates who would even swipe the last crumbs you were saving for a snack after an evening in the library.

As much as "Sweezy spirit" revolved around food, kind-hearted students were even known to give their last morsel of roast beef to some stray dog.

Construction on the three new buildings—the student union, commons, and the men's dorm—began during the summer. By fall quarter the piles of lumber and brick had begun to take shape, and as building progressed, the sound of cement mixers and hammers and the smell of tar became part of the Central scene.

As a result of functional architectural planning the student union was designed to centralize the offices of student government, Hyakem, Crier, Post Office, fountain, and lounge in one building, making it a real headquarters for student activity.

Original contracts called for the completion of the buildings in February, but the Korean situation slowed down shipments of materials and construction processes generally.

Early winter quarter Dr. McConnell announced that they would not be ready for use until August.

Occupants of the Walnut Street dorms, who had hoped to spend part of the winter in comparative warmth, felt more disappointment, perhaps, than did graduating seniors who would have no chance to enjoy the cafeteria and union.

"Learn to do by doing," is a motto that is practiced at Central. Research and experimentation are the foundations of learning in every department and a part of student activity from the first generalized courses to professional subjects.

Field trips and practical experiences, added to the students' background knowledge, help prepare them for actual situations to be met in future careers.

Winter snows melted except in well shaded spots and the impatient "in-between" season took over during February and March.

Clear skies and crisp nights were just right for walks, provided you didn't get interested in the scenery and fall into one of the ditches that had been dug to repair the steam pipes.

Lawns and flower beds lost ground to a steam shovel and lay buried under dirt and rocks, while the Central heating system was exposed to a cold world.

BETWEEN CLASSES

Spring returned to the Sweezy campus one afternoon and found that half the student body had gone to Vantage, leaving assignments to be done some rainy day.

The Library steps were covered by students reading the sunspots before their eyes, and coke flowed freely over the bar at the Campus Club.

Rooftops provided a secluded surface for acquiring under-done sunburns and just-right tans.
